

SOCIOLOGY 2017-2018

Sr. No	Name of Workshop/Seminar	Date from-To	Number of participants
1	Empowerment of self-awareness & Implementation of Rights & Responsibilities	21st August, 2017	27 Males 61 Females
2	Seminar on Significance of Sociology	14th September	94 Students
3	Visit to National Park	17 October	13 Females 1 Male
4	Workshop on Cake Baking	24th January	69 Females 3 Males
5	Interview with fruit sellers at Umergaon, Gujarat	26th January	4 Females 1 Male
6	Visit to Devkibai College	27th January	4 Females 1 Male
7	Field Work with Warli Tribes near Lion Park, Dadra	28th January	4 Females 1 Male
8	Visit to Chiku Fest, Dahanu	28th January	4 Females 1 Male
9	Visit to an Old Age's Home	10th February	14 Females 3 Males

Empowerment of self-awareness & Implementation of Rights & Responsibilities

21st August 2017

A workshop on “Empowering Self Awareness and Implementation of Rights and Responsibilities” was organized by Women Development Cell, Rizvi College of Arts, Science and Commerce in association with POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) on 21st August 2017 in the college seminar Room. Three advocates, Advocate Sana Hakim, Advocate Shivangi Prasad and Advocate Sejal Pawar were present on the occasion for the conduction of the workshop. All the three lawyers were felicitated by Principal, Paul Raj who gave an impressive speech on Women Empowerment and its need in today’s era. Vice Principal, Prof Ashfaque Khan also highlighted the need for creating gender sensitivity and equality in society. It aimed at creating an understanding about sexual harassment and to sensitize on individual differences and the rights provided by the constitution for their safeguard of the women. A detail explanation on ICC (Internal Compliance Committee) along with procedures for filing and redressal of a complaint was minutely discussed. It emphasized on the purpose of law and also took into account the discussion on barriers in reporting of cases of harassments. The issues of stalking, acid attacks and voyeurism were also taken up and the ways to deal with the malicious complains were also discussed by the ways of taking examples from the participants. They were made aware about their rights and duties and were enlightened on preventive measures too.

The workshop also gave lot of inputs on research methodology as the participants were taught with the help of worksheet based on questionnaire to conduct a survey. Practical tips were given and learning from real life situations was discussed. The case studies were taken as live examples to develop a better understanding. The programme was hosted by the WDC representative Ms. Namrah Khan and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Kainat Khan. The organizing team consist of Ms. Batul Bhavnagarwala, Nadiya khan and the students of TYBA, Sociology Majors who tirelessly worked to make this programme a great success. The workshop received an overwhelming response as the students of Bhavan’s college, HR College, Govt.Law College and S.I.E.S colleges participated for the same. Prof. Sherbano of Bhavans College and Prof. Kajol Bramhadande and Prof. Ratna Yadav from Devkiba College Silvasa also participated in the workshop. Prof. Kajol complemented the organizers for having a workshop of this kind. Overall the workshop was attended by ninety eight participants comprising of four male and ten female staff members along with 23 male and 61 female students.

SEMINAR ON SIGNIFICANCE OF SOCIOLOGY

14th September,2017

In order to spread awareness amongst the students about the numerous scope and careers in field of Sociology Dr. P. S Vivek, Prof. Dept. of sociology, University of Mumbai and Prof. Amey Mahajan from RGCC, University of Mumbai were invited to enlighten the students about various opportunities in core and applied subject.

Dr. Vivek an ex faculty of our institute guided the students on how they can take up teaching and research by persuing sociology. He also made the aware about how opting for applied sociology can open career opportunities in NGO's, Disaster Management, HR, Health Care, Human Rights, Law, Gender and International relations and many more.

He simply explained the students about the requirement and steps to take up the respective courses. Dr. Amey Mahajan highlighted the need for social work in today's contemporary society. He also with the help of his presentation and flow charts guided and motivated the students how they can take up social work as their career.

The seminar received an overwhelming response from the students of the college and various other colleges across city including St. Andrews, Maharashtra College, Mithibai College and Bhavans college. 83 students from college & 11 students from other colleges attended the seminar.

SEMINAR ON SIGNIFICANCE OF SOCIOLOGY

VISIT TO NATIONAL PARK

17 October,2017

WORKSHOP ON CAKE BAKING

24th January,2018

The Department of Sociology had organised a workshop on Cake Baking on 24th January,2018. Miss Fatima Dates from Ratnam College was the spokesperson who shared her entrepreneur skills & also spoke about the obstacles that she faced during the initial stages.

She also prepared a creamy cake for the students & shared various tricks of baking. Fatima currently owns her own shop for baking & earns upto 1 lakh monthly through her baking skills. The idea of the workshop was to motivate the students and help them cope with various challenges in life.

Interview with fruit sellers at Umergaon, Gujarat

26th January, 2018

Visit to Devkibai College

27th January, 2018

Field Work with Warli Tribes near Lion Park, Dadra

28th January, 2018

Visit to Chico Fest, Dahanu

8th January, 2018

Visit To An Old Age
Home

10th
February,2018

Department of Sociology undertook a visit to St. Anthony's Old Age Home, Bandra on 3rd February,2018. Students who had volunteered for the same entertained the senior citizens by performing dramas, skits, Singing songs, reciting poems, stories, etc. The students had also made arrangements for a dinner .

The idea behind the visit was to sensitise the students regarding the issues of the senior citizens so that none of them would abandon their parents in their old age. 03 Males and 16 Females had attended the same.

ST. ANTHONY'S HOME FOR THE AGED
51, CHAPEL ROAD, BANDRA, BOMBAY-50

