

Programme Outcome/Programme Specific Outcome/Course Outcome

TYBA Economics

Programme Outcome

The Programme of TYBA has been revised by keeping in view of the recent trends in the subject of economics. The Board of studies in Economics has revised the syllabus of papers at the TYBA which will be made effective from the Academic Year 2018 - 19. In this revision, some of the existing optional papers have been replaced by new papers.

Programme Specific Outcome

This course is designed to inculcate diverse concepts related to Economics of Development, Industrial and Labour Economics, History of Economic Thought, Micro and Macro Economics, Research Methodology, Indian Economic Thought and International Economics.

Semester V

Course Outcome

1) Micro Economics III: Paper VII

The course is designed to provide sound understanding in microeconomic theory. Since Students have been taught perfect competition; this course focuses on three aspects, Which are the study of imperfect competition, general equilibrium and welfare Economics.

2) Economics of Development : Paper VIII

This course is designed to inculcate diverse concepts related to economic growth and development by giving special emphasis on structural issues related to the process of development. In order to create awareness on policy options, the pressing problems on the path of development such as inequality, poverty and technological aspects are dealt in.

3) Industrial and Labour Economics : Paper IX

There has been a paradigm shift in the structure of the Indian industrial sector and the policies governing it ever since the new era of globalisation and liberalisation has ushered in. This paper intends to equip the students with the knowledge about the fundamentals of Industrial Economics. Industrial and Labour Economics : Paper IX

This paper intends to prepare the students with the knowledge of the changing policies related to the Indian industry in the globalised era.

4) Research Methodology: Paper X

This paper is designed with the view to introduce the concepts, principles and methods of economic research based on qualitative and quantitative data. The course will enable the students to get an insight into the applications of modern analytical tools and techniques related economic decision making. The student gets an opportunity to learn how to collect and analyze primary and secondary data. Practical sessions will strengthen the knowledge related to computer applications to research analysis.

5) Environmental Economics: Paper XI

This course focuses on economic causes of environmental problems. In particular, economic principles are applied to environmental questions and their management. Economic implications of environmental policy are addressed as well as valuation of environmental improvements.

6) History of Economic Thought: Paper XII

This course provides basic understanding about the celebrated economists and their contributions starting from the classical period. This paper aims at to make the students aware of the contribution of Classical, Neo Classical, Modern and Nobel Laureate Economists.

Semester VI

Course Outcome

1) Macro Economics III: Paper XIII

This course introduces the students to formal modelling of a macroeconomic theory with analytical tools. It focuses on goods market with fixed exchange rate, the money market, uncovered interest rate parity and the benefits and costs of fixed and flexible exchange rates.

2) International Economics: Paper XIV

This course develops a systematic exposition of models which explains the composition, direction, and consequences of international trade and determinants and effects of trade policy. It then builds on the models of open economy macroeconomics focussing on national policies as well as international monetary systems. It concludes with analytical accounts of the causes and consequences of the rapid expansion of international financial flows in recent years.

3) Industrial and Labour Economics : Paper XV

Issues pertaining to the labour market, trade unions an amicable solution to industrial disputes have become vital for developing countries, especially for India, where the bulk of the labour force is employed in the organised sector, and the organised sector is witnessing a phenomenon of jobless growth.

This paper intends to provide knowledge of the same and also discuss the importance of labour welfare and social security measures for the growing labour force in India.

4) Research Methodology: Paper XVI

This paper is designed with a goal to strengthen the critical thinking and listening skills in conducting economic research and to device research outcomes in an impeccable way. The entire course is based on the broad social sciences spectrum.

5) Indian Economic Thought: Paper XVII

This paper provides insights into both economic issues and the workings of the Indian mind. It will give the student an introduction to major Indian thinkers and their ideas on Indian economic policy.

6) International Trade, Policy and Practice: Paper XVIII

This course is designed for addressing changing phase of International Trade Policy and Practice. The main purpose of this course is to expose students to current trends in International developments.

Programme Outcome/Programme Specific Outcome/Course Outcome

SYBA Economics

Semester - III

1) Micro Economics - II : Paper III

Programme Outcome

The Course is designed to develop the student's understanding of basic tools of microeconomic analysis. It builds on the material covered in semester III and is designed to help the student apply microeconomics to the real world.

Course Outcome

The aim of this paper is to make student aware microeconomics analysis and it considers the operation of a market economy and problem of how best to allocate society's scarce resources.

2) Indian Economy: Contemporary Concerns : Paper IV

Programme Outcome

The Board of Studies in Economics has revised the syllabus of papers at the SYBA which will be made effective from the Academic Year 2017-18. In Semester III, students will study the contemporary economic issues with respect to Indian economy in the context of Economic Survey of the Government of India.

Programme Specific Outcome

This paper will cover the material in the Economic Survey of the Government of India for that academic year. After the publication of the Economic Survey, the Board of Studies on Economics will finalize four topics from the Survey to be taught in that year.

Course Outcome

The aim of this paper is to make the students aware of the various contemporary issues of Indian economy in a particular year.

Semester - IV

1) Macro Economics - II : Paper V

Programme Outcome

This paper is designed to build on the understanding of basic macroeconomic identity introduced in semester IV. The various components are detailed here in the context of a closed economy. The objective is to enable the student to understand how interest rate and income level are determined in a closed economy and how policy may affect these outcomes.

Course Outcome

The course introduces economics analysis of aggregate demand, supply, total employment , income And prices

2) Economic Survey of Maharashtra : Paper VI

Programme Outcome

Semester IV, students will study the Development Issues of Maharashtra's Economy in the context of Report of The High Level Committee on Balanced Regional Development Issues in Maharashtra, Planning Department, Government of Maharashtra, 2013.

Programme Specific Outcome

This paper will cover the material in the Economic Survey of Maharashtra for that academic year. After the publication of the Economic Survey, the Board of Studies on Economics will finalize four topics from the Survey to be taught in that year.

Course Outcome

The aim of this paper is to make the students aware of the various contemporary issues of economy of Maharashtra in a particular concerned year.

Programme Outcome/Programme Specific Outcome/Course Outcome

FYBA

Semester – I

1) Micro Economics - I : Paper I

Programme Outcome

This course is designed to introduce the students to elementary concepts in microeconomics. The student should be able to use these concepts to understand the relevance of microeconomics to the real world. The student should be able to build on these concepts in the future to develop deeper understanding of the Economy.

Semester II1) Macro Economics –II: Paper II*Programme Outcome

This course is designed to introduce the student to the basic building blocks of macroeconomics. Using an open economy framework, the course develops an understanding of the constituents of the open economy. The student should be able to build on these constituents in the later years so as to be able to analyse macroeconomic policies.